Part of the appeal of Revolver might be in the very fact that it really represents the Beatles as not only great songwriters and performers, but as the quintessential "œgang". The album has at least one which is a true group effort, and to which all three songwriting Beatles contributed substantially - namely, "œTaxman".

The complete Beatles volumes 1 and 2 are really the largest variety of Beatle songs I've seen to date and put almost every other Beatle songbook to shame in terms of variety and size. Songs are arranged very well and the bass lines are near perfect, especially for the Abbey Road songs, which are some of the best.
